1967 - One Step More Toward the Future

The future lies ahead of us-down a rough path for some, a paved road for others. It holds many challenges for us, the adults of tomorrow.

In this, the 1967 Arrow, we have tried to present how the students of Cape Charles High School have been prepared for the challenges that face us. Through the efforts of our teachers we have learned the advantages of individual work and abilities. From our coach and principal we have learned the value of teamwork and cooperation in sports. From our clubs we have learned how to assume leadership and also how to follow.

We hope that in the future the students of Cape Charles will pick up the 1967 Arrow and fondly recall the events of the year, realizing that these, their few high school years, were the best preparation they had had for their many years as adults.

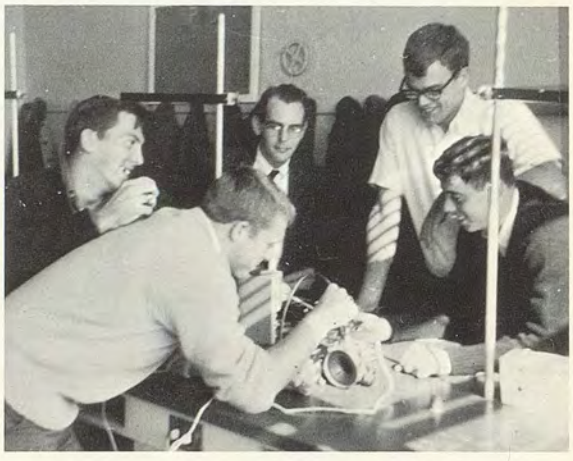
In Cape Charles High School we stress many qualities which are important to the growth of each student.

Now we would like to dedicate the ARROW to one of these qualities, INDIVIDUALISM.

Devoted teachers at C.C.H.S. are always willing to offer their aid to students who need a helping hand.

Individualism means being able to perform certain tasks under the stimulus of one's own initiative.

Valuable also is the spirit of team work and cooperation which is encouraged in the classroom as well as the athletic field.



Individual attention enables each student to develop his own potentialities.

Dominant also among the students is the spirit of sharing the joy of accomplishment gained by working with others.

Unique abilities possessed by each student form an important part of our school activities.

Answers to some of the problems met by students are supplied by fellow-students.

Little things - a principal's "Hello", a teacher's concern, or a friend's smile - create our school atmosphere.

In all these ways the faculty encourages the growth of individualism in the students.

Small, yes, our school is small, but it offers many advantages a larger school lacks.

Many factors contribute to making Cape Charles High School what it is. We dedicate this ARROW to INDIVIDUALISM.

The Senior class of 1967 at Cape Charles High School elected class officers to represent its achievement in student participation throughout the year. They are Phillip Stiles, President; Robins Buck, Vice-President; Ginger Bailey, Secretary; and Ronnie Lewis, Treasurer. With the help of the teachers and students, these officers carry out good parliamentary procedure. Electing class officers is a tradition at Cape Charles High School which proves worthwhile in almost every aspect.

This year's most promising Seniors are Pam and Donald, the SENIORS MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED. Success comes from hard work by those who are willing to work. This is a characteristic of these two Seniors. Their true ability will shine in the years to come.

As 1967 comes to a close, these two, Ginger and Robins, will be remembered by Cape Charles student as being the MOST UNFORGETTABLE SENIORS. There are many reasons why Ginger and Robins were voted for -- personality, appearance, and the genuine quality of kindness.

This Preparation Will Enable These Seniors To Obtain Good Jobs And Happy Homes.

Ronnie and Pam, as BEST ALL-AROUND SENIORS, have fun in school as well as out. They both agree that this means a lot in becoming a well-rounded person. Athletic and scholastic, Pam and Ronnie seem to be happy and well adjusted to school and life.

Could Allen be coining the phrase, "Eat Tiger Meat"?

"Now, Joanne, be a good little girl and say 'Ah-h-h."

M. C. Robins says, "Merry Christmas".

Phillip, playing Santa Claus, loads Mr. Kane with gifts.

Dianne works hard for those grades.

As the 1967 Seniors leave the halls of Cape Charles, they will take with them many memories. Some will recall teachers' instruction; others will remember exams and late hours in study; still others will never forget the playful moments that made school a happy place. But all the Seniors will remember their friends made at Cape Charles High throughout their lives. Such memories will warm many a heart as old Cape Charles High School fades from view.

Eighth Grade Boys say:

No Girls! This earth-shattering news greeted us as we eager, excited, eighth-graders entered Junior High School. Because of our increased size the eighth grade boys and girls were separated. After the shock faded, we settled down to classes, football games, exams and J. V. basketball games. Too soon the year had passed and being in a man's world wasn't so bad after all.

Eighth Grade Girls reply:

No Boys! We finally made it! For seven years we've been sitting down stairs wondering what it is like up stairs. We find high school very interesting and we are glad we finally have become a part of it.

Individual Effort and Desire to Win . . .

The 1966 football season at Cape Charles was highlighted by many close, exciting games. The Indians lost the championship by a total of 3 points, and provided stiff opposition for heavily favored opponents. All in all the '66 season was very successful for the Indians who ended with 6 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie. Four players received recognition for outstanding play by being named to the All-Shore team.

Track at Cape Charles has grown greatly in the last few years. The team during the '66 season was one of the largest yet. There were four seniors on the team, including co-captains Eddie Lewis and Page Bradford. The team participated mainly in shore meets held at Northampton High School. Billy Parks broke two school records, one in the high hurdles and the other in the pole vault. Although the team won few meets, these activities promoted physical fitness and excitement along with encouraging interest in personal development.

Through the eleven years since it received its charter, the Sarah W. Doughty Chapter of the National Honor Society has been justly proud of its membership. The most impressive ceremony in the 1965-1966 year was the induction service for seven initiates. Parents and faculty attended the ceremony and were entertained at a reception.

In April, accompanied by Mrs. Byrd Vick, and Mr. Carl Kane, almost the entire membership attended the first Eastern regional Conference of the National Honor Society at Granby High School.

Work + Problems + fun = Our Annual

Arranging class pictures is just a small part of annual work.

It's nice to have a typist handy.

After-school-work puts finishing touches on the annual pages.

The publishing of the Cape Charles yearbook, the ARROW, required the time, effort, and management of every Junior and Senior of Cape Charles. The work included obtaining ads, typing pages, taking snapshots, and drawing the pages and sending them away. Although we sacrificed some of our extra pleasures, it was a worthwhile and interesting experience to all.

We, the annual staff, would like to express our thanks to Mrs. Ames, our advisor, the class representatives, and all those who made this publication possible. We hope that you will find the ARROW a pleasant memory in the future years.

Hard Work Brings Good Results

"I'll have a candy bar and a drink, please."

"Will I work or just ride around?"

The Distributive Education Club of Cape Charles High School had for its projects the following:

(1) Building a float for homecoming
(2) Eastern Shore D. E. Club Conference at Atlantic
(3) Selling refreshments at home football games

"Should I or shouldn't I?"

The D. E. class goes downtown to look at and learn about window displays.

Everyone Gets the Christmas Spirit

The third grade band, directed by Ray Wood, entertains.

Phillip: "Merry Christmas, George!"

Debbie Handley, Mary Ann East, Debbie Bones, and Dessie Hopper add to the program by singing, "The Twelve Days of Christmas".

W. K. and Earl get into the Christmas spirit by decorating the tree.

Carol tells of a very special night.

Debbie Powell and Ronnie Lewis, the MOST STUDIOUS, are two of the most conscientious students of Cape Charles High School.

Vaughan Dodd and Shirley Russell, the MOST TALENTED, strike up a tune.

Because of their attractive appearance, Pam Richardson and Donald McMath were chosen BEST LOOKING.

SUPERLATIVES

The BEST DRESSED, Doug Hickman and Pam Richardson always exhibit good taste and style in the selection of their clothes.

The MOST SCHOOL SPIRITED, Ronnie Lewis, Phillip Stiles, Donald McMath and Ginger Bailey are always ready to cheer their teams on to victory.

Though a year has passed and the dances have changed, Brenda Dunton and Tommy Bennett are still considered the BEST DANCERS.

There's nothing like a good fight to round out the day!

Here and There -- In School – On the Playground

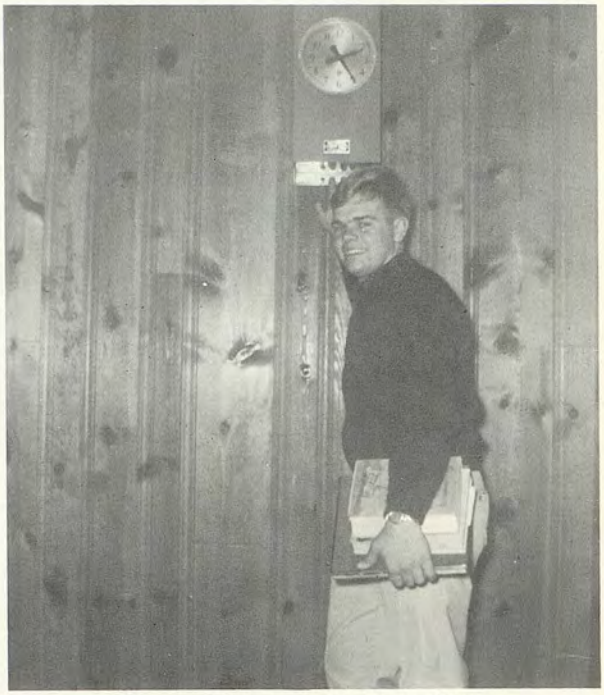
The grades help the cheerleaders yell at all the pep rallies.

"Hey! There's too many on one end!"

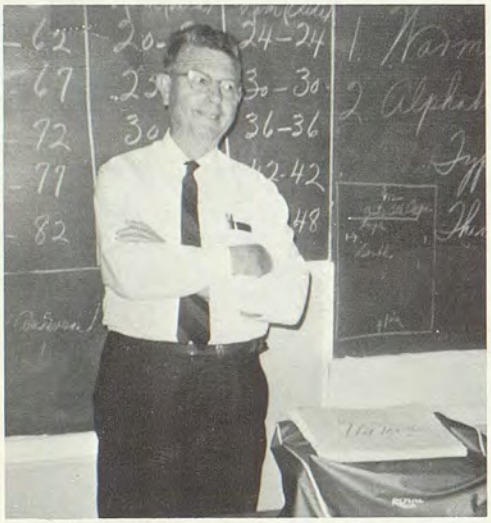
Mr. Kane sometimes supervises the playground.

Surprise Snaps Around School . . .

Surprised Bruce: "Who, me?"



Please, Robins, hold that bell!!!



Patiently Mr. Deal waits for test.

Seniors struggle on their Trig. Exam.

Betty and April: "Aren't we cute?"

Football Team leaves for Hampton Roads.
